

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

August 25, 1964

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I regret any delay in getting this to you sooner, but it involved some research. Here is what information I have developed on your request regarding the Geneva conference documents on Viet-Nam and Laos.

Copies of the documents after the Geneva conference of 1954 on Viet-Nam are no longer available in the Department of State. Reference on the Agreement on Cessation of Hostilities in Viet-Nam (July 20, 1954) and the Final Declaration of the Geneva Conference (July 21, 1954) which are the Geneva Accords, may be found on pages 750-767 and 785-788 of American Foreign Policy 1950-1955: Basic Documents, Pub. 6446 of General Foreign Policy Series 117--published by the Historical Policy Research Division of the Department of State. If your local library does not have this publication, you may wish to obtain it through the lending service of the Library of Congress.

The second agreement published after the Geneva conference of 1962 on Laos, which you also requested, is enclosed. The CIA report you mentioned has not been duplicated for handout by the Department of State. It still remains in a classified status.

I have given Mrs. Hubbard the information about when you knew her and of your thoughtful congratulations.

Sincerely,

Eunice H. Isaacs
(Mrs.) Eunice H. Isaacs
Office of Public Services

Enclosure.

Mr. Harold Weisberg,
Hyattstown,
Maryland, 20734.

P.S. I hope the above information will be of help to you, and if I, or the Department, can be of further assistance to you, please do not hesitate to call on us.
